Great Britain Opposes Arms Equality For Germany

STATEMENT ON DEMANDS MOST BLUNT

Britain Considers Demand is Unwise in View of Conditions in Germany

BOUND BY TREATY

Understood Germans Not to Participate in Tuesday Disarmament Gathering

LONDON, Sept. 19.—(UP)—The British government had lined up solidly today with France against Germany's demand for disarmament equality, as a result, political observers said, of a surprisingly blunt foreign office statement.

The statement was not even tempered with the usual courteous diplomatic phraseology. In many respects it was more devastating than the French reply to the Reich's equality demand.

Britain considers the demand unwise in view of Germany's economic difficulties; untimely in view of financial concessions recently granted Germany; and holds that even if a disarmament convention is not concluded by the world conference at Geneva, Germany will not be entitled to abrogate the restrictions placed on her by the Versailles treaty, the statement said.

Germany, after being advised that questions involving national pride and dignity would be best settled "by friendly negotiation not involving either disregard of treaty obligations or an increase in the sum total of armed force," was told:

"This desirable consummation cannot be attained by peremptory challenge or withdrawal from deliberations which are about to be resumed. It can only be reached by patient discussion through the medium of conference between the states concerned."

The blunt attitude of the government was attributed to a new development since the French answered the German demand, namely the official announcement that Germany would not participate in the Tuesday meeting of the bureau of the disarmament conference.

Observers saw little or none of the influence of Prime Minister Ramsay MacDonald in the memorandum, but much of the work of Foreign Minister Sir John Simon.

LOS ANGELES ASKS LOAN OF MILLIONS

WASHINGTON, Sept. 19.—(UP)—A proposed loan of $22,800,000 from the Reconstruction Finance corporation to the city of Los Angeles was discussed by President Hoover today with E. F. Scattergood, manager of the bureau of power and light in Los Angeles.

The money would be used for construction of a power transmission line from Hoover dam to Los Angeles.

Scattergood, in Washington to urge the loan on R. F. C. officials, said he hoped for "favorable action within two or three weeks."

JAMES J. DAVIS GOES ON TRIAL IN U. S. COURT

United States Senator is Accused of Using Mail for Lotteries

NEW YORK, Sept. 19.—(UP)—James J. Davis, United States Senator from Pennsylvania, cabinet member under three presidents, and idol of the million members of the Loyal Order of Moose, went on trial today, charged with violating the federal statutes prohibiting matter pertaining to lotteries from the mails and from interstate commerce.

A gray-haired, broad shouldered middle aged man, Davis took his place at counsel table as federal Judge Frank J. Coleman directed the reading of the indictments. A candidate for re-election in November, his political future was at stake.

Davis was indicted on 10 counts, charged with sending lottery material through the mails and in interstate commerce, and also with conspiracy. The alleged lottery was conducted by the Fraternal Order of Moose which he dominates. If convicted, he faces a maximum sentence of 20 years imprisonment and a $25,000 fine.

A prosecution motion for the selection of 14 jurors, two to serve as alternates without votes unless one of the other 12 should become incapacitated, was granted.

Davis, who began life as an immigrant boy from Wales and made his way up from day laborer and iron puddler to the places of the mighty, was indicted with six others and the Western Union Telephone company.

STAY OF EXECUTION IS GRANTED SLAYER

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 19.—(UP)—Verne Doran, ex-convict who turned state's evidence against Frank J. Egan and Albert Tinnin when he confessed the killing of Mrs. Jessie Scott Hughes, may wait another week before he is brought to trial, Superior Judge Frank H. Dunne ruled today.

At the same time, the judge granted an additional five day stay of execution to Egan and Tinnin, who were convicted of first degree murder and sentenced to life imprisonment or the slaying of the elderly widow.

Doran had been scheduled to appear in court today, but Judge Dunne postponed his trial for one week.

OPPOSES RENEWAL OF RADIO LICENSES

WASHINGTON, Sept. 19.—(UP)—Chief Examiner Ellis A. Yost today recommended that the federal radio commission refuse to renew the broadcasting licenses of stations KTM, Los Angeles and KELW, Burbank, Calif.

Yost said that in his opinion neither station had proved it was rendering "a satisfactory public service."

Circus Fans In Favor Of Long Parades

SAN ANTONIO, Tex., Sept. 19.—(UP)—The Circus Fans association, composed of men and women who still thrill to the lure of the "big top" was on record today as favoring more and longer circus parades.

A suggestion was advanced at the annual convention here that parades be revived, and held in residential sections of cities, where there is no traffic congestion.

A feature of the convention was the wedding of Alfred Cordons, widower of Lillian Leitzel, famed aerialist, and Vera Bruce, a member of his troupe team.

HOOVER MEETS WITH ADVISERS OVER CAMPAIGN

Renewed and Stronger Efforts Will Be Put Forth By Republicans

WASHINGTON, Sept. 19.—(UP)—Comprehensive plans for the "renewed and stronger effort which President Hoover called for in Republican campaign activities today were made at White House conferences over the week end.

Three of the president's chief campaign advisers, Secretary of War Hurley, Secretary of Treasury Ogden L. Mills and Chairman Everett Sanders of the Republican National committee, met with Mr. Hoover for several hours last night.

The entire scope of the campaign was gone over. The significance of the Democratic victory in Maine was understood to have been discussed at length.

Sanders said a vigorous educational campaign was planned, apparently in line with Hoover's statement of last week that the Maine election result "imposes need for renewed and stronger effort that the people may fully understand the issues at stake."

"There has been a steady sweep favorable to the Republican cause, beginning with the president's acceptance speech," Sanders said, "and a vigorous campaign is underway to bring forcibly to the people of the country the doctrine which he enunciated in that speech."

"When that educational campaign is effectually accomplished there will be no doubt of the president's re-election."

Thus far Mr. Hoover has resisted in appeals of his advisers that he make an extended campaign tour. His present plans call for three speeches away from Washington, two in the middle west and one in the east.

Primaries will set up state tickets this week in Wisconsin and Massachusetts and congressional and local tickets in New York. In Wisconsin Governor Walter J. Kohler. Senator John J. Blaine is vigorously opposed by John J. Chapple, young Ashland, Wis., publisher. Democrats, normally playing only a minor part in Wisconsin, have shown heavy registration and party lines are more unstable than ever in that state this year.

Wisconsin Democrats have protested against the help which Senator Burton K. Wheeler, Democrat, Montana, is giving Blaine, a Republican progressive.

After his release he will be allowed a maximum of six visitors at a time without police surveillance.

JAPAN SEEKING OIL AGREEMENT WITH RUSSIANS

Delegation of Japanese to Get Contract and Cut off United States

BERLIN, Sept. 19.—(UP)—A delegation of important Japanese businessmen was enroute to Moscow today to negotiate a petroleum contract with the Soviet Naptha syndicate aimed to make the Japanese navy independent of United States oil supplies.

Foreign military attaches here considered the Japanese gesture of the highest political and commercial importance. Japan's desire to emancipate herself from the United States petroleum interests has been known for some time. Suspicion between Japan and Russia prevented earlier negotiations.

These suspicions reached a climax last spring with revival of Japanese military activity in Manchuria, heavy concentration of Red army units in Siberia, and war talk from Tokyo and Moscow. The Japanese delegation quietly departed for Moscow, when the tension eased recently.

Tokyo's scheme coincides with Moscow's desire for increased oil sales. It is believed here that a Russo-Japanese oil deal will stabilize Russian oil exports for several years and relieve pressure on the Soviets to come to terms with American and British producers for a partitioning of world markets.

CLARENCE DARROW JOINS HUMANISTS

NEW YORK, Sept. 19.—(UP)—Clarence Darrow has allied himself with the humanist movement by joining the Unitarian Society of Minneapolis, the first humanist society of New York announced today.

The noted criminal lawyer who has often voiced opposition to organized religion joined the Minneapolis society two weeks ago, the announcement said.

He also consented to become a member of the advisory board of the Humanist Extension Bureau, which is planning to have him appear in a series of lectures on humanism. He may also give nationwide radio talks on the subject, an announcement said.

U. S. District Attorney Returns From Washington on Investigation

CHICAGO, Sept. 19.—(UP)—The United States government is investigating the billion dollar Insull Utilities collapse, the United Press learned today.

The Federal inquiry may take one of three courses, it was learned, after the arrival of United States District Attorney Dwight F. Green, who has been in Washington, D. C., presumably studying extradition treaties of the United States with France and Canada in connection with the investigation.

The three possible courses of the investigation are:

- 1.—Inquiry into the use of the mails by the Insull companies.
- 2.—Whether there was any attempt to shield or conceal assets.
- 3.—Inquiry through the internal revenue department into the income tax on individuals connected with the companies.

Samuel Insull, once the head of the vast utilities empire, at present is in Paris on an $18,000 a year pension and his brother, Martin J. Insull, head of one of the major companies, is living in Canada.

State's Attorney John A. Swanson also pushed his phase of the inquiry. A special auditor studied the intricate records of the interlocking companies.

Garner arrived Sunday to find physicians had given up all hope the aged woman would live. She had been unconscious for many hours, and the physicians doubted she would rally enough to recognize her eldest son.

GUARDS CALLED OUT TO QUELL LABOR DISPUTE

Taylorville, Ill., Streets Patrolled Following Sunday Bombings

TAYLORVILLE, Ill., Sept. 19.—(UP)—National Guardsmen patrolled the streets today as tension ran high after bombs were thrown here in the bitter Illinois coal labor dispute.

Two companies of militia, ordered to the scene at the urgent request of authorities, arrived shortly before noon.

Officers disposed the troops about the city ready for any eventuality. The city was quiet at an early hour. Special deputies sworn by local and county peace officers aided the guardsmen in their patrol.

The National Guard companies were ordered here by Gov. Louis L. Emmerson after a committee of militiamen sent to investigate conditions reported to him that it was doubtful if order would be preserved without their aid.

Local officials said they feared new bomb outbreaks unless protection was furnished.

The offices of the Taylorville Breeze, local newspaper, and the local headquarters of the United Mine Workers of America were partially wrecked in explosions Sunday.

Local miners are divided in two camps, one desiring to work on a $5 daily wage scale, the other favoring a strike for the old rate of $3.75.

MCGBRIDE PREDICTS NEXT CONGRESS DRY

WASHINGTON, Sept. 19.—(UP)—A prediction that the next congress will be "dry" came from P. Scott McBride, general superintendent of the Anti-Saloon league today, as the prohibition bureau's report on August activities showed less liquor seized, despite acceleration in activities.

McBride's conclusion was based, he said, on the results to date of state primaries.

In August the prohibition bureau made 831 arrests and seized 1278 automobiles and 1746 stills. In each instance these were gains both over August 1931 and July of this year. Less wine, spirits and beer was confiscated, however.

TEN SUICIDES ARE REPORTED IN DAY

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 19.—(UP)—Ten persons, one of whom was a deputy county counsel, were dead today as the result of a week end wave of suicides.

Most spectacular was the death of a beautiful unidentified young woman who plunged from the top of a huge "Hollywoodland" sign in the hills overlooking the city. A note indicated she had ended her own life.

WEDNESDAY IS DAY SET BY LEADERS

Highways, in Meantime, Thrown Open; All Dairy Foods on Exempted List

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Sept. 19.—(UP)—Highways were flung open to farm produce at least temporarily today as preparations were made for putting into effect throughout the middle west a general farm strike movement.

These two developments, though seemingly in contrast, were actually both the result of a meeting here over the week-end of the executive committee of the Farm Holiday association. The committee called the strike on livestock and grain to become effective Wednesday and at the same time advised discontinuance of picketing.

All the roads leading into St. Louis City from Nebraska and Iowa were free of pickets today but there still remained scattered picket camps in South Dakota.

The formal recognition of picketing by the Farm Holiday association and the advice to be discontinued was a reversal of tactics formally employed. Heretofore the association has maintained the attitude that the picketing was not part of the Farm Holiday movement, that it was begun without orders from the association and hence it must be halted without interference on the part of the association.

Before the executive meeting, however, it was reported that the National Holiday president, Milo Reno, conferred with Gov. Dan W. Turner to whom requests repeatedly had been made for the National Guard to clear the highways. Turner presumably argued with Reno that the picketing was detrimental to the strike cause. The executive committee action frowning on picketing followed, but it was prohibited whether it would have the desired effect.

HONOLULU, Sept. 19.—(UP)—Corporal John Hart was drowned and Private Robert Long was missing today as the result of the forced landing of an army bombing plane in heavy seas off Koko Head, 12 miles from Honolulu, yesterday.

Hart was pulled under by the weight of his parachute. Long disappeared and it was feared he also drowned.

Lt. J. C. Kilborn, pilot of the plane, and Sergeant S. P. Riales took to a life raft and were rescued by a fishing sloop.

Hart's nearest relative is a sister, Mrs. Enna Arnett, Oakland, Calif. Private Long's parents live on R. F. D. 3, Elizabethtown, N. C.

WILL ROGERS SAYS

SANTA MONICA, Sept. 19.—(To the Editor of The Register:—) Big forest fire been burning out here for two weeks. That certainly won't do Hoover any good letting that happen right here in his home State.

Both political parties are trying to help the railroads. The railroads could help themselves if they would make the fares what they were in the days when they used to make money. If they would compete with a bus and truck instead of just cussing 'em they wouldn't need all this help.

POLICE ARREST BOY FOR SERIES OF BURGLARIES

With four Santa Ana churches reported burglarized yesterday and the Sunday before, one of the churches being broken into three times and another twice, Santa Ana police announced this afternoon that they had arrested a 16-year-old Orange high school student who lives at the Santa Ana Y. M. C. A. and are holding him in connection with the crimes.

The boy was arrested at the Orange high school at noon today after a quantity of stamped envelopes and other small articles reported stolen from the churches had been found by police in his room at the Y. M. C. A. officers said.

Immediately after the articles were found, the police went to the high school at Orange where the youth was taken into custody. At the local police station he admitted he had entered one church here last night and that he broke into a business house on North Main street last night.

Police have received no report of a burglary on North Main street and are inclined to believe that it was on South Main street in Orange. The youth said he attacked the safe there and tried to knock off the combination, but failed. Chief of Police F. W. Howard said.

Enters C. of C. Office
The boy was unable to tell which church he entered here last night. There were three church burglaries reported. The First Christian church, which was burglarized a week ago, was re-entered late yesterday afternoon, but nothing was reported taken, and the Spurgeon Memorial church at Church street and Broadway was broken into twice Sunday. On an occasion, the thief attempted to enter the study of the pastor, the Rev. C. M. Aker, and failed, but succeeded in breaking off a brass plate on the door. Sometime later in the night, a ladder was raised to the second floor of the church and entrance made through a window. Nothing was taken however.

The Santa Ana Chamber of Commerce building also was broken into yesterday and desks ransacked, but nothing reported missing.

ing according to George Raymer, secretary. Entrance was made through a side window and the burglary was discovered at 6 o'clock.

Ransack Scout Headquarters
The same thief is believed to have ransacked the Santa Ana Boy Scout headquarters at 715 North Broadway street, where a back door was jammed. The thief ransacked the desks inside and took $1 in change, it was reported. On Sunday, September 11, the First Christian church, the Spurgeon Memorial church and the First Baptist church were entered and a small amount of money and clothing reported stolen, together with stamps and stamped envelopes. It was "loot" from these burglaries, police said, that led to the arrest.

The arrest was made because Police Officer Harry Prichard suspected the thief who had been robbing the churches might live at the Y. M. C. A. Footprints had been found, showing the thief wore tennis shoes and Prichard asked at the "Y" if such a boarder lived there. He was taken to the youth's room and found the envelopes, he said.

HALT FIRST TRUCK

WORTHINGTON, Minn., Sept. 31.—(UP)—Forty members of the Farmers' Holiday association today stopped the first truck bringing farm produce to Worthington, inaugurating a threatened farm strike in Minnesota.

More than 200 farmers deployed on roads around the city to stop all trucks bearing farm produce other than dairy products.

The driver of the truck stopped at the opening of the strike parked his truck and awaited developments. Several farmers sought to persuade him to go back home but he was non-committal.

No barricades were used by the picketers and the Minnesota and Nobles county units of the association are pledged to strike without violence.

The premature movement in Nobles county has the complete approval of the state organization, M. B. Miller, Nobles county chairman, said.

The Worthington district is in the Sioux City market area and the local movement is for the support of Iowa strikers.

SAN CLEMENTE, Sept. 19.—Funeral services for Frank Beal, 59-year-old citizen of this city, who passed away at the San Clemente Community hospital at 4 o'clock Friday morning were held at Arlington cemetery in Riverside today.

FOR SHAME, OFFICER!

KNOXVILLE, Tenn.—Imagine a strapping policeman getting an injunction to keep his wife from attacking him or molesting him on his beat or making debts in his name! Ed Lee, a bold bruiser when it comes to handling men, is the officer in question. He secured the injunction against his wife, complaining that she called him numerous profane names and threw butcher knives at him now and then.

70-ACRE TRACT IN RIVER AREA BEING CLEARED

HUNTINGTON BEACH, Sept. 19.—A 70-acre tract of land bordering the Santa Ana river where the Newland road or Fairview road crosses the river is being cleared of a heavy growth of underbrush and small timber by the use of a tractor under the direction of Will H. Jones.

N. Sasaki, successful pepper grower and owner of the pepper drying plant on Hampshire avenue, said to be the largest pepper drying plant in the world, has taken a long lease on the tract and Jones has taken the contract to put it in shape to receive the seed and small pepper plants for next season.

The land is covered with a growth of willows, eucalyptus, sycamore some five years old, a few older and a dense growth of underbrush. The huge tractor is equipped with a front bumper of heavy railroad iron and drags an improvised harrow or split log drag made of heavy oil well casing, the casing sawed lengthwise and weighing about two tons.

The tractor is driven straight through the dense jungle. It flattens and uproots the underbrush, rears up against the trees until they bend, break or are uprooted in the soft sand. The tractor and drag do the work of 100 men, it is claimed. Trees five to eight inches in diameter are torn down. Hundreds of farmers and landowners have visited the scene and as a result Jones has obtained several hundred additional acres to clear and clean, mostly along the Santa Ana river. This land, left to the wild for years, will likely prove highly fertile for agricultural purposes it is said.

Sasaki notified the agricultural bureau of Japan and that nation had a moving picture company come to the land and take pictures several hours. These pictures will be taken to Japan to be used in educating the Japanese land owners as to the best methods of clearing jungles.

Jones operates the tractor with the aid of one man. Later he will put wood choppers to work saving the wood and burning the brush and leaves. Following this he will plow and harrow the land. The tractor leaves a path like a cyclone had passed. Rabbits, opossums, birds and wild life flee the path. The only time the tractor was halted was when Jones and his assistant tore down a hollow tree where bees had been making their home for years.

SHERIFF SEEKS GRAVE ROBBERS

Grave robbers, operating with spades, broke into the 30 year old tomb of Nino White, former El Toro resident, some time last week, according to an investigation now being conducted by Sheriff Logan Jackson.

The grave was entered and then partly refilled, officers said. They do not know what the motive was, other than possible theft of jewels which may have been on the body at the time of burial.

Relatives of White, who died at El Toro in 1902, and who now are living in Los Angeles, could throw no light on the grave robbery.

First reports to the effect that it was not known whether the body had been removed, later were changed when it was learned that the caretaker at the cemetery had seen the bones at the bottom of the grave. The body and the coffin had disappeared during the long period since burial.

CHILDREN TO PRESENT DRY PAGEANT HERE

Thirty Santa Ana school children will take part in a prohibition pageant and rally to be held in the auditorium of the First Baptist church, it was announced today by Miss Mabel Jean Brown and Miss Dorothy May Hoffman, who were making final preparations for the event today.

The rally is sponsored by the Santa Ana W. C. T. U.

In the first part of the pageant entitled, "What Do You Think?" boys and girls will be seen in the court of "King Temperance," representing the American laboring man, the child, the mother and the business man, as well as other groups representative of American life. The children will show how prohibition has benefited them, and will express their thanks to "King Temperance."

Musical numbers will be presented by the Baptist church orchestra under the direction of W. G. Axworthy.

Miss Brown will present a recital of dramatic, humorous and temperance readings. She is well known, not only as a talented reader, but throughout the country for her impersonations.

Miss Hoffman will address the audience concerning the crisis in the prohibition question today. She will discuss the matter from an economic standpoint and also concerning its effect on young people and universities of the nation.

Last night the program was presented by the two young women in Tustin before a large audience. At the program here, there will be no admission charge, and the public is invited to attend.

SCHOOL BOARD FACES SECOND COURT ACTION

With the issuance this morning of a writ of mandamus against the Santa Ana High School district, the high school board of the Santa Ana High School district, the Santa Ana city board of education and George R. Wells, W. M. Burke, Rolla Hays, M. B. Youel, and Marguerite Baker as members of the board of education are facing a second legal action that has arisen from its attempts to drop teachers in the interest of economy.

The writ of mandamus was issued this morning by Superior Judge James L. Allen on petition of Miss Lois A. Gould, formerly a teacher of music in the elementary and junior high schools. The defendants are ordered to return Miss Gould to work or appear in department two, superior court at 2 p. m. September 30 and show cause why she should not be employed.

When Miss Gould was dropped from the city teaching staff it was accomplished through elimination of the teacher of elementary orchestra. In her petition Miss Gould contends that the music work has not been discontinued in the junior high schools and that as a permanent teacher she is entitled to a position.

Claims Tenure Miss Gould in her petition charges that on May 15, 1931, she accepted employment as a permanent teacher for the school year beginning September 1, 1931 at an annual salary of $1875. Under her contract she alleges that she taught part of each day in the elementary schools and the remainder of this day in junior high school. Her contract, she contends, classified her as a permanent teacher.

On April 13, 1932, Miss Gould was notified by the board of education, through former Superintendent of Schools Percy R. Davis that the position of teacher in elementary orchestra was being eliminated and that her services would end with the close of the school year. On May 3, she charges that she received another letter stating that the board had definitely discontinued a "particular kind of service" and that her services would not be required after the close of school.

Offered Services This "particular kind of service" she contends has not been discontinued in the junior high school in which she says she has been serving for four and one-half consecutive school years. Because of this fact she is demanding a position in the junior high schools.

On September 7, 1932 Miss Gould notified the school board, Superintendent of Schools Frank Henderson, and principals of both junior high schools that she holds the status of permanent teacher in the junior high school. On September 12, she presented herself for work, when school opened and was refused a position.

Last week Miss Bertha Briney also a teacher in the junior high school, dropped in the economy program, filed a similar action against the board. The writ in her case is also returnable on September 30, before Judge Allen.

EDITORS ENJOY TRIP ON NEW DESERT ROAD

Southern California editors and others met at Riverside Saturday morning for a goodwill trip over the newly opened Pines-to-Palms highway from Idyllwild to Indio.

The party was sponsored jointly by the Riverside County Chamber of Commerce and the Coachella Valley Chamber of Commerce. The Riverside group provided transportation and was host at lunch at Idyllwild and the Coachella Valley group entertained at dinner at the Desert Tavern Inn, Coachella.

The trip from Idyllwild to Indio was over the new road that has been opened as an outlet from the Coachella Valley to the mountain resorts. Dropping from the hills the road passes some of the finest orchards of the Indio section. Stops were made at several of the orchards where the production and curing processes were explained and where quantities of the dates were presented to the tourists.

The return trip from Indio was made over the Beaumont and Banning route and down over the Jack-rabbit trail into Riverside.

Chapman to Speak To Church Boards

C. C. Chapman, well known agriculturalist, capitalist and churchman, will be the principal speaker at a district meeting of official boards of Christian churches to be held at the First Christian church in Fullerton tomorrow evening. The meeting will be opened with a 6:30 dinner. Members of official boards of churches in Santa Ana, Fullerton, Anaheim, Orange, Brea, La Habra, Whittier and Huntington Beach will be in attendance.

CELEBRATION TO BE HELD BY M. W. D. GROUP

Santa Ana and Orange county officials of the Metropolitan Water district, city officials and civic leaders plan to attend a 12 o'clock luncheon meeting to be held at the Elmore hotel in Los Angeles Wednesday noon to celebrate the fact that the money to start the work on the aqueduct that will bring water here from the Colorado river has been loaned to the district by the Reconstruction Finance corporation.

Cot. S. H. Finley of Santa Ana, O. E. Steward of Anaheim and Walter Humphreys of Fullerton, representatives of the Orange county cities in the Metropolitan Water district on the board of directors, also will be guests at the dinner.

The public has been invited to the meeting, but it will be necessary to make reservations by calling or writing the secretary of the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce officials announced. The meeting is sponsored by the Metropolitan Water district and the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce.

Dr. Ray Lyman Wilbur, secretary of the interior, will be the featured speaker at the celebration luncheon and is expected to discuss the aqueduct and Hoover dam. This will be Dr. Wilbur's first public address since coming to California recently, according to M. W. D. officials. He plans to leave after the celebration on an inspection trip of the Hoover dam and the aqueduct route.

Other speakers on the program will include John G. Bullock, chairman of the district bond committee; F. E. Weymouth, chief engineer, and other city and district officials who worked with the Reconstruction Finance corporation in obtaining the loan which assures immediate start of work on the aqueduct. A Schleicher, president of the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce, will preside at the affair.

Two Arrested On Drunk Charges

Charged with being drunk, Mrs. Margaret Howard, 41, a rancher of Magnolia and Orange avenues, near Anaheim, and William Zimmerman, 51, also of Anaheim, were arrested by Fullerton police officers at 1 a. m. today. They were turned over to sheriff's officers and brought to the county jail here. The officers are reported to have found them parked in a car.

Other Routes For Aqueduct Urged

Cot. Ed Fletcher, San Diego, land developer, at public meetings, is urging an indefinite delay in the beginning of work on the M. W. D. Colorado river aqueduct to permit an investigation of advantages he asserts are offered by each of three proposed southern routes.

He plans, he said, to seek another hearing before the Metropolitan Water District board of directors, urge temporary suspension of the contemplated construction of the Parker route and then prevail upon the board of supervisors of Los Angeles, Orange, Imperial, and San Diego counties to pool a fund to finance such an investigation.

Officials of the Metropolitan Water District, however, have previously pointed out that each of the proposed routes was investigated by district engineers before the Parker route was selected.

Judd H. Calico, 24, and Given Tripp, 21, both of Fullerton, have applied for a marriage license in Riverside.

Advance registration lists at the University of Redlands include the name of Richard G. Robbins, son of Mr. and Mrs. Mac O. Robbins, 2123 North Main street, Santa Ana, who will transfer to the university as a junior this year, it was learned today.

DRAMA, DEBATE COMBINED IN NOVEL DIALOG

"Wet vs. Dry," which will be presented at the Santa Ana First Presbyterian church next Thursday night at 7:30 p. m. by the famous Hall-Summers team under the auspices of the Santa Ana Board of Strategy and at the Puller Methodist church tomorrow night at 8 p. m., is a dialogue, drama and debate, all in one. There is no admission charge and the public is invited to attend.

The entire program takes place in a judge's office when Tom O'Neil, a big league bartender, first man to obtain a permit to operate a licensed drink emporium when the country goes wet. He is so sure the Wright act and the Eighteenth amendment will be repealed that he is bubbling over with enthusiasm. He is willing to deposit $1000 with the proper officer, but is a bit hazy about who has the authority to accept the money for the license.

While seeking the proper person in the court house, he stumbles into the office of the judge. O'Neil is surprised to find his old acquaintance, the judge, who he has known in the days when America had legalized saloons and O'Neil ran one of the most notorious. O'Neil is overjoyed because he feels he is in the presence of a friend who will help him get the first license.

What takes place then has gone down in prohibition history as the most complete, dramatic, humorous, pathetic and colorful presentation of the liquor problem that has ever been presented on the American platform. It is said by those who have heard it in the past.

"Wet vs. Dry" has drawn packed houses with hundreds and thousands turned away wherever it was presented. Commenting on the presentation, the Chicago Tribune said, "It is the Uncle Tom's Cabin of the liquor traffic." The Atlantic City Review said, "It is a cross between a lecture, sermon, lecture and minstrel show." The Baltimore Sun said, "The greatest discussion of the liquor traffic in modern times." The Denver Post said, "It's a scream, a double-distilled laugh." The Fresno Herald declared, "Six thousand heard them in Fresno. Thousands turned away." and the Colorado Springs Gazette said of it, "If they return, no building in Colorado Springs will hold the audiences."

Hall and Summers gave "Wet vs. Dry" in Orange county in 1916 when the last state wide prohibition fight was waged before the adoption of the Eighteenth amendment. It has been revised to fit the present liquor problem and conditions.

Mrs. E. Wheeler, state president of the W. C. T. U., said, "I have heard 'Wet vs. Dry' 20 or 30 times. That's why I have booked it for the state W. C. T. U. convention at Santa Barbara on September 28."

LONDON.—Take it from one who had had experience—just as many husbands are to blame for divorce actions as there are wives—according to Justice, McCordie, who has sat on the divorce bench for years. "Those who have watched divorce court jurisdiction in this country for many years will have observed how worthless many wives are—utterly worthless to their husbands—just as one observes how utterly worthless many husbands are to their wives."

1 JAR RESINOL HEALED SEVERE ECZEMA

"More than 35 years ago, when I was a child, I developed a severe case of eczema behind my left ear. In spite of all the remedies used the disease spread rapidly over my head. Finally our doctor, one of the best in Kansas City, told Mother to try Resinol Ointment as he knew it was good. It was wonderful and after using a full jar the affection was entirely healed. Since then I have been an ardent user of Resinol for burns, cuts, and all manner of skin affections, and have never known it to fail. There is nothing like it for the skin disorders of babies, it is so soothing and healing." (Signed) Mrs. O. S. Platt, 297 Carrollton Ave., Shreveport, Louisiana.

PARK DIES AFTER SECOND STROKE

Hugh Park, 65, resident of Santa Ana for the past 12 years, during which time he has been working as a carpenter until his recent fatal illness, passed away at his home, 1664 West Chestnut street, yesterday.

He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Sarah Elizabeth Park; three sons, Ray H. Park and Lloyd A. Park of Los Angeles and Lyman L. Park of Hawthorne; and two daughters, Mrs. Marie King of Spokane, Washington, and Mrs. Louise Bowman of Los Angeles.

Funeral services, which will be held under the direction of the Harrell and Brown Funeral home, will be arranged upon the arrival of the daughter from Washington.

HEART ATTACK IS FATAL TO BAY SWIMMER

Believed to have suffered a heart attack, Arthur L. Long, 36, of Los Angeles, sales supervisor for the Auto Club of Southern California, was found dead in the channel of Newport bay north of Lido Isle yesterday.

Cornet Earl Abbey ordered a post mortem performed at the Chetum funeral parlors this afternoon to determine the cause of death.

Long had been spending several days with Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Robinson, who have a home on Lido Isle. Yesterday Long went in swimming. A few minutes after Robinson noticed Long floating face down in the water.

Robinson brought the body to shore and believing that a spark of life might remain, rushed to the Newport Beach hospital, where Long was pronounced dead.

Long, who was unmarried, is survived by a brother in Los Angeles. Robinson is connected with the Pasadena office of the auto club.

MORE LEADERS SELECTED FOR CHEST DRIVE

With the appointment of Charles Pritchard, J. A. Cranston and Lloyd Banks to head three major departments for the forthcoming campaign of the Community Chest, the organization of the men's divisions of the appeal is progressing on schedule time, W. J. Tway, chest president and general campaign chairman, announced today.

Pritchard, trust officer for the First National bank, will have charge of the business department as chairman. He is rapidly lining up the vice chairmen who will serve as key men for the divisions and units within the department.

Cranston, former superintendent of city schools, heads the establishment department, which will be responsible for subscriptions from employees of the larger firms and companies of the community. Through pre-campaign activities a number of firm heads have indicated their willingness to serve as unit or firm captains for work among their own employees.

The important public employees department of the appeal will operate under the chairmanship of Lloyd Banks, city auditor. This section of the campaign will be responsible for covering federal, state, county and city employees.

"These department chairmen are all busy men who under more normal conditions probably would not feel that they could give the time and effort which will be involved in this project," Tway said. "In a way we have sort of drafted them to these key places and they have all recognized that we are facing a condition which means that every person called upon, should feel it a civic responsibility to serve even though in so doing they are making a good many personal sacrifices."

"There never has been a time when the success of a chest campaign should mean as much to people to be solicited for support through these three departments, as it does now. Business men and public employees or those of private firms, have all had an opportunity to see what tremendous difficulties are confronting the children and families of those who through unemployment have been compelled to call upon the public for relief."

"With more than half of the entire chest agency budget assigned to meet direct relief requirements, it is obvious that the only way to meet the needs of these neighbors of ours is to go the limit to provide the minimum campaign goal of $53,000. At the same time the chest allocations provide for the essential prevention and rehabilitation work through which to assure community well being of the future."

INDIAN EXPERT WILL ADDRESS 20-30 CLUB

John Harrington of the famous Smithsonian institute, who is considered one of the foremost authorities on the American Indian in the entire United States, will be the featured speaker at the regular meeting of the Santa Ana Twenty-Third club which will be held at Ketter's cafe tomorrow night, it was announced today by Leland Finley, president of the young men's service club.

Harrington is spending some time in Santa Ana while working on the explanatory footnotes for the book, "Chingehinich," which is being published at the high school and junior college printing department under the direction of Thomas Williams, director of the department. The book, which deals with early Indian mission history in this section, is expected to be a valuable contribution to the general knowledge of the life of Indians during the Spanish mission period.

Because of the fame of the speaker, who is said to be the foremost authority on the Indian language in the United States, an especially large attendance is expected at the meeting.

In addition to the featured address, Dr. Horace Leecing has arranged a special program of entertainment for the meeting.

Plans will be completed for a social evening to be held for members and their wives at Hume West's home on Victoria drive the evening of September 27.

Two old members of the club, Clarence Trickey and Fayette Bircher, are back on the club active list again, it was announced today. The club has nearly filled its quota of membership, and is looking forward to a successful season during the coming winter months, according to officers.

NEW HEAVY BIPLANE

LONDON—A new heavy duty biplane, designed to carry a load of 33 tons, has been undergoing tests here. It will carry a crew of ten, and a fuel load for non-stop trips over distances of many hundreds of miles. It has a wingspread of 126 feet, and is powered by six 825-horsepower engines.

SCOUTS IN TRAVEL FILM

Boy Scouts who made a trip through Africa with the famous explorers, Mr. and Mrs. Martin Johnson, are shown here with some Masai women they met on the trip. The travel picture, which is endorsed by Scout officials will be shown here this week.

TRAVEL FILM ENDORSED BY SCOUT LEADER

The endorsement of the Orange County Council, Boy Scouts of America, was given today to the showing of "Across the World With Mr. and Mrs. Martin Johnson," which will be shown at the Walker State theater Wednesday and Thursday, in a letter to theater officials from Harrison E. White, county scout executive.

White declared that he had personally previewed the splendid picture of adventure and unusual experience, and could heartily recommend it to everyone. He called attention to the fact that three outstanding Eagle Scouts have an important part in the picture.

Boy Scouts of this city are expected to take more than an ordinary interest in the showing of the film here, for a large part of the picture is devoted to an account of the experiences of three scouts who visited the famous explorers in their African camp and for several weeks shared the dangers and excitement of life on a lion hunt safari.

The three scouts were selected from all the troops in the United States for their ability to write and on their records as scouts. All of their expenses were paid and on their return they wrote a book about their adventures.

The picture takes the explorers from San Francisco, by way of Hawaii, to the South Pacific and the Solomon Islands, the New Hebrides, New Zealand, Malokula, Vanu, and many other out-of-the-way places. Then they sail to Africa and take their auditors into the Victoria and White Niles, into the Belgian Congo, Tanganyika, the Ituri Forest, Pygmy land, the Serengeti plains, Kenya Colony and much more of British East Africa.

NEW TEACHER

TUSTIN, Sept. 19.—Miss Vivienne Wynne, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John M. Wynne, and a graduate of LaVerne college, is the teacher this year in the new school, at Hrabuco Oaks, which has an enrollment of 12 pupils.

The new school is in the El Toro school district and is located 14 miles from El Toro over unpaved roads. Mr. Wynne furnished the school building without cost to the district and the district trustees figured it would cost less to maintain a separate school than to transport the pupils to and from El Toro.

MAKE APPEAL FOR SUPPLIES AND ODD JOBS

An appeal for work for members and for fruits and vegetables to can, was issued today by officers of the Unemployed Association of Santa Ana.

As the winter months approach, the association finds that it is running short of fruits and vegetables and fruits for immediate use. Anyone that has anything that could be used by the unemployed groups is requested to call 5610 and a truck will be sent to pick up the food or clothing.

According to officials, work seems to be picking up a little, although wages continue to go down. Most of the work is piece work and at a price so low that the average man earns but from 50 to 90 cents a day, officials declared.

"Members of the association will be most happy to do any odd jobs, such as repairing fences, trimming hedges, mowing or trimming lawns, trimming tops of trees, repairing screens or roofs, or in fact, any type of work at all," President Charles Secher said. A determined effort to obtain part time and permanent positions for the able and competent men who are members of the association is being made by the officers of the association.

Through the courtesy of the Breakfast club, parents of children entering school this year have been given loans sufficient to relieve the immediate needs of the students for articles of clothing which could not be furnished in the clothing department of the commissary.

Members of the association today were requested by the board of directors to use more of the flour obtainable through the Red Cross and to use less bread. It was pointed out that the bread bill of the organization has doubled the original need. Yeast cakes will be available at the commissary.

The local Scouts were led for many months last term following the resignation of the regular Scoutmaster, by Ned Clinton, who accepted the position until such time as a new Scoutmaster could be secured.

REVILL BACK FROM TRIP TO WEST INDIES

Home from a trip to South America and the West Indies, Alan A. Revill, 1012 North Olive street, resumed his duties as organizer at the First Congregational church here yesterday, after an absence of three months. Revill visited a sister and a brother, while gone, stopping with Mrs. Reginald Smith in New Amsterdam, British Guiana, and with H. W. Revill in Toronto, Can.

While reporting extreme poverty in the West Indies, Revill remarked upon the equality of those islands, which the inhabitants of those islands have accepted conditions which are heavily protested here. In Venezuela, however, he found a more encouraging economic situation, owing, in part, to that country's lack of indebtedness.

Weather conditions Revill declared ideal, the Santa Anan experiencing far greater heat in Alabama and in New Orleans than in the West Indies, a condition he attributed to the tradewinds of the latter territory.

From Mobile, Ala., Revill sailed for Jamaica and the Island of Curacao, off the coast of Venezuela, spending one week end at the American college in Caracas, capital of Venezuela. In Dutch Guiana he ventured inland to visit the native Indians in their villages, flying thence, via Pan-American air lines, to Georgetown in British Guiana. There he was met by his brother-in-law and sister, the Rev. and Mrs. Reginald Smith, and taken by motor to their home in New Amsterdam, at the opposite end of the colony.

After a month's sojourn with the Smiths, Revill sailed on a Canadian National Steamship for Boston, stopping in the West Indies en route. From Massachusetts he headed north to Canada, visiting his brother in Toronto for 10 days before traveling home via Chicago.

News Behind the News

WASHINGTON
By Paul Mallon

FRANCE

We are soft-soaping France a little.

That was the purpose behind Ambassador Edge's speech hinting that we might guarantee French security. He just pushed along a little further the idea Secretary of State Stimson has in the back of his mind. A similar vague hint was made by Stimson in a recent New York speech.

What we want is a settlement of the bad European situation. France is the way to that. Unless she goes along with Germany there is going to be major trouble if not disaster. She will not go along unless her security is assured.

Ours is a good policy if it works.

The basic fact seems to be that President Hoover is letting Stimson play along with his bold idea. At the first sign that it may go wrong you can expect Mr. Hoover to put his secretary's policy in the cooler.

We are not guaranteeing anyone's security but our own. You may mark that down as certain. Even if the administration wanted to do it—and it privately does not—Congress would prevent it.

The State Department tried to create the impression that it knew nothing of Edge's speech. That is hokey.

Ambassadors do not take such liberties in expressing policy without word from the head men. Diplomats have a way of misshaping the meaning of words so you cannot believe your own eyes. The Department is apparently truthful when it says it did not see or pass on Edge's actual speech. But you may be sure it sanctioned the idea. Otherwise Mr. Edge would even now be recalled.

JAPAN

The Japanese situation is drifting unnoticed in a bad direction. Higher-ups here are more concerned than is generally realized. Concern is caused by the Japanese charge that the National City bank was taking photographs for spy purposes. The charge would be considered absurd everywhere but in Japan. There you have a military government and a people dominated by almost fanatically-minded patriotic societies. The conviction is widespread there that we are ready for war on them. Our policy may swerve shortly toward getting that idea out of their heads. It will be done carefully because we cannot condone recent Japanese tactics. It takes two to make a war.

Mr. Hoover here again does not agree with his Secretary of State. There is no question that Stimson will do what he is told. But he wants to use a firmer hand than Mr. Hoover thinks advisable. Here also the preponderant opinion of inside Washington supports Mr. Hoover.

It is a bad time for this thing to come up. The Japanese situation is getting hot. Our inside reports indicate she shortly will move to take Jehol. The League of Nations report exposing Japan's seizure of Manchuria is due for publication shortly.

SLOTH

The second highest Republican walked into Chicago campaign headquarters recently and found all the workers standing around looking out the windows. He expounded in all directions.

They will tell you that most of the bol weevils have been sent to the Chicago office. The good fellows are supposed to be concentrated in New York. They are not looking out of the windows.

SWEETENERS

The R. F. C. is beginning to get a political curve on its fast ball. No political effects are sought by the corporation, but plenty are expected by the politicians.

Latest is the four millions given for the Dotsero cutoff in Utah. Senator Smoot worked hard for the loan. His friends would be overlooking a bet if they did not use it in his campaign.

That is chicken feed to what is coming.

NOTES

Nobody in Washington had the slightest idea of the Maine result. . . . The best source received a wire confidentially as a result of an expert poll the day of the election. . . . It predicted the Democrats would gain one Congressional seat and lose every thing else. . . . Fifteen statistics now have ratified the "Lame Duck" amendment to the Constitution.

That leaves 21 yet to act. . . . They will during the course of the next year. . . . The January session of Congress will probably start a year from this coming January. . . . No opposition is being encountered to the amendment out in the state legislatures. . . . Financial figures could hardly be better. . . . Hoarding is falling off. . . . There are strong indications that banks are loosening up on commercial loans. . . .

NEW YORK
By James McMullin
MARKET POLITICS

The Maine election was a damper to the theory that a rising market would help Hoover's chances. The opinion is now held in certain high quarters that stock market fireworks are more harmful than helpful to the Republican cause. There is considerable doubt whether strong support will be offered for stock prices even in the event of a prolonged decline. Powerful interests have been sitting on the sidelines for several weeks and showed no inclination to go to the rescue when the market skidded on Sept. 12 and 13.

STOCK MARKET

A lot of ragged edge speculators were wiped out when the market did its diving act. People who were gambling with the rent money couldn't put up any more margin. Also hundreds of stop loss orders were touched off like so many firecrackers.

The undermargined public was not alone in its misery. Quite a few small but ambitious pools were operating on a shoe string in the lower priced stocks—and the shoe string broke.

An explanation of the large volume of margin buying in spite of the notable failure of brokers loans to increase is given by a large commission house. This house recently had 16 million dollars on hand in the form of customers' credit balances on which it paid interest of 2%. The interest was reduced to 1% in an effort to get the customers to put their money to work but this step was only partially successful.

Brokerage houses failed to get excited about the reaction. They figured it was overdue and were glad to have their judgment justified. Meanwhile the commissions continue to roll in.

STEEL

Wall Street is doing its best to find grounds for optimism in the steel report of unfilled orders. One analyst points out that a gain of 3000 tons is a whale of a lot better than the normal August decrease of 25,000 tons.

HOOVER

The financial district is belatedly admitting that some of the Hoover policies have borne real fruit in allaying business and strengthening the financial structure. The Federal Reserve policy of buying government securities in order to broaden the credit base is now interpreted as the factor which prevented widespread banking shipwreck.

ELECTRICITY

A very slight upturn in G. E. business is construed as particularly encouraging because the company's products are sold largely to homes. Westinghouse, dealing chiefly in heavy machinery, has shown no gain as yet.

MOTORS

The automobile industry is at present geared up for 7 times its current output. Besides the new Essex and Rockne (sponsored by Hudson and Studebaker) other manufacturers are toying with the idea of entering the lower price field.

GOOD OLD AGE

Many authorities say that an alligator does not reach its full adult growth until it is between 40 and 60 years old. Their normal life is said to be between 100 and 200 years.

Radio News AT WATER KENT AUDITION ON KREG TONIGHT

Orange county's contestants in the state Atwater Kent radio audition will be selected tonight at 7:30 o'clock in a preliminary competition conducted by KREG.

There are 14 contestants from this county who will take part in the audition tonight. Twelve of the contestants are boys and four girls.

Judges for the preliminary contest tonight will be Nina Wolf Dickinson, Long Beach; Prof. Ralph Lyman, Claremont; and Gilbert Wilson, Laguna Beach. The Orange county audition this year is being presented under auspices of the Civic Music Association of Orange County with Mrs. Helen Wishard Edwards, in charge of the program. Dr. Herbert A. Johnston is president of the organization and Clarence Gastlin, secretary.

Contestants to be heard in tonight's preliminary are: Paul Allen, William Fox, Marquise L. Hara, Lynwood Young and James A. Sherwood, Santa Ana; James Baker and Martin Bowman, Tustin; Haydn Bolander, Fullerton; George Forster, San Juan Capistrano, and Charles Rothman, and William Webster Jr., Fullerton. Girls in the contest are: Jean Baldwin, Huntington Beach; Verna Mae Helm and Hazel Stukeby, Santa Ana; and Minerva Wighash, Fullerton.

Awards this year to National winners will total $15,000 and will be divided $5000 each to the best man and best woman singers and $5000 to the other finalist.

All contestants in previous auditions with the exception of those who have reached the finals, if they are still within the prescribed age limits and retain their amateur status, are eligible to compete in the 1932 audition.

Eligibility rules are: No one may compete who has been a paid vocal principal with a professional theatrical or operatic company. No one may compete who has been a paid vocal principal in any concert held outside his own state or a state adjacent to that in which he resided at the time of such concert.

Entrants must be free from any contracts to sing in concert, radio, operatic or theatrical productions, but singers who broadcast over local radio stations without contract, are not barred thereby.

State auditions will be held in October with the district auditions to follow in November. The national finals will be held in December.

CAR LOADINGS SHOW SUBSTANTIAL GAIN

"The statistics of freight car loadings for recent weeks, and especially for the week ended September 3, the latest available, indicate that a real improvement in general business has begun," says the Railway Age.

"Comparisons of car loadings in the same weeks of different years and in different weeks of the same year have to be made carefully to exclude the effects of holidays, and especially of seasonal variations. Freight business always is smaller in midsummer than in the late summer and fall, and therefore an increase in the late summer and fall is significant only if it is smaller or larger than the usual seasonal increase."

"Study of the statistics reveals that there has been occurring recently, and especially in the week ended September 2, a substantially larger than normal seasonal increase. In the four weeks immediately preceding the Labor day holiday in 1928 total weekly loadings increased 6.4 per cent; in 1929, 5 per cent; in 1930, 7 per cent; in 1931, 3.4 per cent, and in 1932, 12.8 per cent."

Alliance Firm Pays Promptly

Officials of the company today called attention to the fact that it was the Alliance Mutual Life Insurance association of Santa Ana that received a letter of thanks from Mrs. Floyd M. Parish of Huntington Park for the prompt payment of $1000 for the death of her husband, who carried a policy in the company. In a recent issue of The Register, the company was erroneously referred to as the Allied Mutual Life Insurance company.

Mrs. Parish filed a claim last Monday and on Wednesday the check for $1000 was turned over to her by the Alliance Mutual company. It was the fastest payment in the company's history, which was carried by the deceased.

Heifetz and Bowl Orchestra to Give Concert Tuesday

Jaucha Heifetz, one of the world's foremost violinists, will give his only concert in Southern California this year in the Hollywood Bowl tomorrow evening.

After a world tour Heifetz returned to Southern California a week ago, when he had his first glimpse of his two-months-old son, Robert Joseph, born to his wife, the former Florence Vidor, while he was abroad.

Many requests for another Heifetz recital, and the prospect of continued warm weather this month, influenced Bowl officials to complete arrangements with the famous musician for this concert. The Bowl orchestra, of 90 pieces also will be heard, conducted by a celebrated director.

The program will include Overture, "Magic Flute" (Mozart); Violin Concerto (Tchaikowsky)

Jaucha Heifetz; Poeme for Violin and Orchestra (Chausson) Jaucha Heifetz; Introduction and Rondo Capriccio for Violin and Orchestra (Saint-Saens) Jaucha Heifetz.

HOOKS LACKAYE QUILTS AS LEADER OF STARS

Hi, Dons Open Local Grid Season This Week

WILLIAM BRAUCHER

The melancholy days are here, the saddest of the year for many of our country's leading coaches. The ranks of the college gridiron heroes have been sadly depleted by that calamity of calamities, graduation.

The publicity department of the larger schools are sitting up nights thinking of new ways to groan on paper.

Who lost that stellar performer for three seasons, Joe Whoozie, they write, "and Coach Henningway, looking over the replacement, wears a worried look."

DOWNFALL OF McSLUG
Then there is that ogre of scholastic failure, that maniacal halfback, Rip McSlug, quipped as the color of blue viridol, declared the stuff green, and that let good old Rip out.

This year the depression is added to the crushing burden loaded upon the mentor's sagging shoulders, two or three young gladiators from the freshman class, could upon as sure-fire stars, will be unable to return to good old Slawsh because Papa lost all.

SUTHERLAND WEEPS
Perhaps the championship should go to Jack Sutherland. Calling the newspaper boys around him in Pittsburgh the other day, he broke down and confessed that Pitt simply is shot.

"If we win any big game this year we'll be lucky," he cried out in anguished accents. Then he went into the agonizing details, one by one.

To begin with the schedule was grounds for suicide. Imagine one team playing Ohio State, North western, West Virginia, Duquesne, Army, Notre Dame, Penn, Nebraska, Carnegie Tech and Stanford. Enough work for two seasons right there, all packed into ten weird weeks!

"And what am I going to do about a line?" he asked the pallid correspondent. "All I've got is a center, Joe Tormey. If you can tell me the names of the other six men in the forward wall, I'll turn over my season's pay and go back to the dentist's business for the rest of my life."

BUT WAIT!
There is one way out for the harassed coach, however. Let him go to the coach of some rival eleven on the schedule and he will learn that the team is pretty good, after all.

Thus, Harvey Harman, who is doing the moaning at Penn this year, begs to point out that Captain Reider of Pitt and another man named Heller, coached also by Jack Sutherland, form a passing combination better than any in the country. Harman goes so far as to say the Pitt backs are "better than two backs Notre Dame has had on the same team."

LISTEN TO HUNK
Now let's take a little trip to Notre Dame and hear one of Hunk Anderson's views about Pitt football players.

"That fellow, Luch," says Hunk, "is one of the finest defensive backs these old eyes ever have seen. He'll better us a whole lot this season."

Probably by quizzing Dana Bible, at Nebraska; Major Sasse, at West Point; Judge Steffen, of Carnegie Tech, and a few other coaches of teams that Pitt will struggle with, it could be discovered that Pitt this year will have one of the greatest teams in the country, and shouldn't lose a game.

So there you are.

Jail Ace Hudkins As Drunk In L. A.
LOS ANGELES, Sept. 19.—(UP)—Ace Hudkins, 27-year-old boxer, was given a sentence of $10 fine or five days in jail today on a charge of drunkenness. He was arraigned at sunrise court after spending the night in jail.

He was returned to jail to await arrival of friends with the money. Police were called to eject Hudkins from a hotel for assorted disorderly conduct.

STARTED IN NATIONAL
Rube Walberg and LeRoy Mahaffey of the Athletics, Lloyd Brown of the Senators and Red Faber of the White Sox are the only American league pitchers who saw service in the National League.

Sewell Strikes Out Third Time In Season
NEW YORK, Sept. 19.—(UP)—Joe Sewell, the New York Yankees' keen-eyed third baseman, struck out yesterday for the third time in 118 games he played this season.

Walter Stewart, left-handed pitcher of the St. Louis Browns was flinging when Joe was called out in the third inning by Umpire Harry Giesel.

In 1925 Joe played in 155 games and struck out only four times. Again in 1929 he fanned only four times in 152 games. He fanned only three times in 105 games in 1930. He was struck out only 110 times in 1761 major league games from 1920 until now.

SAINT-ORANGE GAME FRIDAY: BRICKLEY HERE

Saints and Dons tilt the lid this week on Santa Ana's elaborate and long awaited 1932 football schedule.

Santa Ana Hi, defending champion of Southern California prepdom, has the distinction of parading the new season. Coach "Tex" Oliver's men face Orange, a worthy and much respected opponent, at Poly field Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

Coach Bill Cook's junior college Dons, constantly growing in esteem with the city's pigskin populace, swing into action Saturday, at the University of Southern California freshmen, and their set-to will not only begin the Dons' season but also the Los Angeles program, since it will be a curtain-raiser to the Trojan-Utah varsity brush at the Coliseum, and therefore the first uptown struggle too.

Box office reaction to the Santa Ana-Orange prep battle will determine whether some of the other Saint games are held Friday rather than Saturday. The opener, originally booked for Saturday, was set back at the request of many fans who desired to attend the Coliseum contests. If Friday patronage warrants, it is understood that other Hi games, especially next week's with Compton here, will be run off Friday to avoid conflict with jaycee and Los Angeles contests.

Charles E. Brickley, generally regarded as the greatest drop-kicker and placekicker ever developed in football, will be the speaker tomorrow noon at a meeting of the Santa Ana Exchange club at the Santa Ana cafe. Members are privileged to invite "football-minded" friends.

At 2 o'clock, Brickley will go to the high school and actually demonstrate his kicking prowess, little dimmed by the years that have passed since he was All-American halfback at Harvard in 1912-1914. During his three varsity seasons at Harvard, Brickley kicked 34 field goals out of 37 attempts, including five in one game against Yale in 1912 when Howard Jones was coaching Old Eli.

For their first scrimmage with an outside team, Saint stringers go to Long Beach tomorrow for an informal workout against Woodrow Wilson Hi, member of the Bay league.

Coach Oliver is expected to star a lineup chosen from such men as Bolton, Harris and Hendrie, ends; Boyle, Devenney, Covington, Williams and Noe, tackles; Underwood, Rash and Durbin, guards; Duncan, center; Conrad, B. Mitchell, Montgomery, Kipper and Stranek, backs. These men will be displaced by reserves as the combat continues.

Four years of exhibition football with the U. S. C. Freshmen have not netted a single point for Santa Ana junior college, yet when Coach Bill Cook's Dons gridmen enter their fifth practice game with the Trojans in Olympic stadium Saturday this record is expected to help rather than hinder them in seeking victory.

An inferiority complex suffered before and after Santa Ana's 4-0 defeat in 1928 has faded out to such an extent that following the past three years of play, the Dons have come to realize the Trojans are offering them stiff rather than unequal competition. Although the U. S. C. goal line remains uncrossed by Santa Ana, the Dons won an 0 to 0 "moral" victory in 1929. The score was 7 to 0 in '30, after a hard fought battle at Poly field. It was 18 to 0 last year.

The 11 best Dons in drill this week will take the field Saturday. There is little question but what Harold Welty will start at quarter. Wally Smith is reasonably sure to work at full. Captain Jim Hall will fill one of the halfback positions. Hideo Higashi will be in the starting lineup, either at end or inside half.

The amount of good material for each of the other positions prevents an early selection of starting linemen. Coach Cook having shown no preference. Past days of drill indicate that Greenow, Mel-singer, Lash and Stewart will be among the leading competitors at end. Conkey, Heffron, Fredericks, Baldwin and Bower at present stand the best chance at tackle, while Kluthe, Williams, Stoddard and Koral have been rated as probable starters at guard. Handy and Hoar have been alternating at center.

Officially, there is no complete

Derisively thumbing their noses at the old superstition which has it that a winning ball club, on its way to a world series, will bring on a protracted slump by posing for a group photograph before it is "in," the Chicago Cubs willingly galloped on the playing field and posed for the birdie recently. The resulting photograph shows Mrs. Bruin's offspring all lined up in the following manner:

Back row: Charley Root; Billy Jurges; Gabby Hartnett; Riggs Stephenson; Johnny Moore; Lon Warneke; Rellie Helmsley; Mark Koenig; Zack Taylor; and Burleigh Grimes.

(This is the first of a series of thumbnail sketches of world series personalities.)

ERRINGTON TO PITCH AGAINST RIVERSIDE ACE

Charged with greater respect for the inland opposition, Anaheim's Valencia travel to Colton tonight for the third game of their Southern California championship baseball series with Riverside's fighting Rubes.

The clubs are even now—one game apiece—and a long, hard series is anticipated. Riverside's hitting, especially in the pinches, has been better than expected by most observers although Anaheim is still being picked to win by reason of better pitching and heavier batting.

Vic Rudy, Anaheim leader, plans to pitch "Fuzzy" Errington for the third successive time while Riverside probably will rely on Chet Briggs, the half-speed specialist who worked the last two innings of last Friday's contest in a relief role for Lloyd Lichten-walter.

Three games are scheduled this week, the clubs returning to Anaheim Wednesday for the fourth start.

Pomona Netters Beat Santa Ana Club Decisively

Winning everything but one singles and one doubles match, Pomona defeated Santa Ana, 10-2, in an inter-club tennis tournament at Pomona yesterday, reversing a 10-7 victory which the Santa Anans scored here a few weeks ago.

Kenneth Ranney's decision in sixth singles and his doubles win with Don Park were the lone Santa Ana victories.

Men's singles—Alman (P) defeated Bell (SA) 6-4, 8-6; Arnold (P) d. Wetherell (SA) 6-3, 6-4; Stanton (P) d. Cross (SA) 6-3, 6-0; Walker (P) d. Finster (SA) 6-3, 6-2; Blair (P) d. Park (SA) 6-1, 4-6, 6-3; Ranney (SA) d. Bell and Cross (SA) 4-6, 6-2, 8-6; Park and Ranney (SA) d. Dunham and Taylor (P) 4-6, 6-1, 6-3.

Women's singles—Travis (P) d. Lauderbach (SA) 1-6, 6-2, 6-3; Guilan (P) d. Bower (SA) 4-6, 6-3, 6-3; Women's doubles—Cross and Travis (P) d. Lauderbach and Bower (SA) 6-4, 6-2.

WORLD SERIES CLOSEUPS

"G" stands for grand, gorgeous, tells. "Maybe the fact that I couldn't hit or run had something to do with it, too."

But he had a fast ball. Nick Williams of the San Francisco Coast league club saw it. The angular Castilian took the proffered contract.

Gomez is supposed to lose 15 pounds every hard game he pitches. Fortunately he gains it back with careful diet and rest within 48 hours, else he'd weigh a minus quantity.

The slender southpaw was born in Rodeo, Calif., and won't be 22 years old until the Saturday after Thanksgiving Day. By that time he'll be richer by several thousand dollars of world series money.

His professional pitching career began at Salt Lake City, in 1928. He performed for the Frisco Seals in 1929. The Yankees used him in 15 games in 1930 and optioned him to St. Paul, where he won eight and lost four. Back again with the Yankees last season, he won 21 games and lost nine, his first year as a regular.

Lefty was the first major leaguer to pitch 20 victories this season. He probably will pitch the opening game of the world series.

'LAME DUCKS' MOVE INTO THIRD ROUND

With several outstanding matches listed, Santa Ana Country club golfers move into the third round of their first annual "Lame Duck" tournament this week.

Don Kennedy, boy marvel of the club, and the veteran F. E. Farnsworth hook up in an attractive battle. H. B. Van Dien and Ed Holmes Jr., two of the membership's best shooters, meet in another.

Third round pairings and second round results:

A. B. Watson (defeated C. P. Patton 2 and 1) vs. D. Corring (d. H. L. Miller, 2 and 1).

Bob Fernandez (d. E. E. Wilson, 3 and 2) vs. W. E. Watkins (d. R. E. Gray, 3 and 2).

LONG BEACH HI GLOOMY, FEARS WORST ON GRID

(This is the third of a series of articles reviewing football teams of the Coast Preparatory league. Today's installment considers Long Beach Poly.)

It may sound absurd to close followers of Coast league football, but the Long Beach Jackrabbits are building for 1933. Nevertheless they make no boasts about a championship team one year hence, and they certainly sport no championship aspirations this year.

Orian Landreth, who guided the green and gold eleven to a pair of Coast and Southland titles in 1929 and 1930, retires to the background when coaches begin bragging about their returning lettermen. He has two, and both were ranked as reserves last season.

Graduation struck with full force, wiping out practically everything he had.

Today the Jackrabbit coach is working with a green squad of sophomores and juniors, who have shown little, if any, ability. Some of the experts laugh, and hint that Landreth is putting up a smoke screen. Others think it is only a matter of time before the Jackrabbits will again be a title threat. Not this year!

Arnold, Williams Lone Vets
Long Beach's two lettermen are Hayes Arnold, lanky tackle, and Hugh Williams, fullback. Williams shows up well in the new Notre Dame system, tried this year for the first time by Landreth, but will have few, if any, playmates of equal ability . . . and one man can't be a Coast league title threat in football, or any other team sport.

Most of the Jackrabbits material comes from sophomores and juniors. Several class 'B' boys are showing up fairly strong. Jim Chappel, a sophomore back who has been in the navy several years, is slated to be one of the backfield stars.

The 1932 Jackrabbit backfield will probably line up with Williams at full; Chappel and Dave Burman at halves, and Jim Scow at quarter. Scow, a fair kicker at passer, was a reserve last year. Burman is the son of the Poly principal, David Burman sr., and is only a junior.

Alhambra Transfer Helps
Joe Horsley, 155-pound fullback transfer from Alhambra, may work into a backfield combination although he is a bit slow. Then again, Coach Landreth may shift him to a line berth. Johnny Takahashi, 127-pound Japanese speedster, and Ray Dupdey, 135-pound "B" star a year ago, will form the "last quarter" duo. They are both exceptionally fast, and are slated to do some fourth-period pinching.

Hitting "Red" Ragdale, the brilliant basketball luminary, will rat as second-string quarter. He is inexperienced, this being his first year at the grid sport.

Coach Landreth admits that the backfield strength is pitifully weak. He thinks his line is far worse. Kenny Davis, 155-pound junior varsity back last season, and either Don Bristow or Howard Dunn are listed tentatively for the end combination. Davis, although light, is the only end capable of hauling down a pass with a fair degree of consistency.

Summary

LONG BEACH HI GLOOMY, FEARS WORST ON GRID

(This is the third of a series of articles reviewing football teams of the Coast Preparatory league. Today's installment considers Long Beach Poly.)

It may sound absurd to close followers of Coast league football, but the Long Beach Jackrabbits are building for 1933. Nevertheless they make no boasts about a championship team one year hence, and they certainly sport no championship aspirations this year.

Orian Landreth, who guided the green and gold eleven to a pair of Coast and Southland titles in 1929 and 1930, retires to the background when coaches begin bragging about their returning lettermen. He has two, and both were ranked as reserves last season.

Graduation struck with full force, wiping out practically everything he had.

Today the Jackrabbit coach is working with a green squad of sophomores and juniors, who have shown little, if any, ability. Some of the experts laugh, and hint that Landreth is putting up a smoke screen. Others think it is only a matter of time before the Jackrabbits will again be a title threat. Not this year!

Arnold, Williams Lone Vets
Long Beach's two lettermen are Hayes Arnold, lanky tackle, and Hugh Williams, fullback. Williams shows up well in the new Notre Dame system, tried this year for the first time by Landreth, but will have few, if any, playmates of equal ability . . . and one man can't be a Coast league title threat in football, or any other team sport.

Most of the Jackrabbits material comes from sophomores and juniors. Several class 'B' boys are showing up fairly strong. Jim Chappel, a sophomore back who has been in the navy several years, is slated to be one of the backfield stars.

The 1932 Jackrabbit backfield will probably line up with Williams at full; Chappel and Dave Burman at halves, and Jim Scow at quarter. Scow, a fair kicker at passer, was a reserve last year. Burman is the son of the Poly principal, David Burman sr., and is only a junior.

Alhambra Transfer Helps
Joe Horsley, 155-pound fullback transfer from Alhambra, may work into a backfield combination although he is a bit slow. Then again, Coach Landreth may shift him to a line berth. Johnny Takahashi, 127-pound Japanese speedster, and Ray Dupdey, 135-pound "B" star a year ago, will form the "last quarter" duo. They are both exceptionally fast, and are slated to do some fourth-period pinching.

Hitting "Red" Ragdale, the brilliant basketball luminary, will rat as second-string quarter. He is inexperienced, this being his first year at the grid sport.

Coach Landreth admits that the backfield strength is pitifully weak. He thinks his line is far worse. Kenny Davis, 155-pound junior varsity back last season, and either Don Bristow or Howard Dunn are listed tentatively for the end combination. Davis, although light, is the only end capable of hauling down a pass with a fair degree of consistency.

Summary
2 base hits—Turner, Spencer, B. Koral. Stolen base—Daley. Bases on balls off Drysdale 7, off Erwin 2, off Shepherd 1. Double plays—Hill to Sweet to B. Koral, Hatfield to B. Koral. Sacrifice hit—B. Koral. Hit by pitched ball—Galloway. Scorer, Ruckler. Umpire—Smith.

County Prep Officials To Reorganize

The annual reorganization meeting of the Orange County Coaches' and Officials' association will be held at Ketter's cafe here tonight at 6:30 o'clock.

Re-election of officers is the most important item coming before the group, although other interesting matters, including a discussion of new football rules, selection of a '32 officials' list, and a consideration of the Orange league football schedule are scheduled.

President Ralph Reed of Newport Harbor Hi, has called the meeting. Other officers are Foster Begg, Garden Grove, secretary; John L. Mitchell, Garden Grove, treasurer; and Glenn Lewis, Fullerton, director of officials.

C. MILNE NEW KING OF BOWL 'BIKE' RACING

Cordy Milne of Hollywood today had succeeded Portland's Ray Grant as king of Bowl motorcycle race drivers. Approximately 3500 wild-eyed followers of the two-wheel daredevils saw the coronet lifted off Grant's brow and put on the head of Milne here Saturday night.

Critics and fans had come to believe that the scintillating Grant was invincible on the Bowl track, but Milne proceeded to sweep the board, winning all races in which he started except one. Milne took a spill in the final handicap which went to Tom Cox of Pasadena, but Milne came back to maneuver his mount to victory in the sweepstakes, with Jack, his brother, pulling up second and Grant, who spilled on the straightaway, remounting to wind up third.

Grant's track record was given a shaving by Milne, who reduced the one-lap mark from 162-5 seconds to 161-5. The Hollywood ace took a beautiful ride in lowering the mark.

A rumour was created in the Gold Cup team race. The Milnes, with Jack riding first, won a close decision from Sid Chambers and Grant. But the judges decided that Jack Milne had not touched his mechanic when finishing his portion of the race. The mechanic must be touched before pushing off the second member of the team. Prize money has been held out of which Roberts arose to finish the dash event third.

This week and hereafter races will be held on Friday night at the Bowl. The officials made the switch, believing that Orange county merchants and others who are busy until late on Saturday evenings, will be glad of an opportunity to witness the weekly whirlpool of speed.

The most spectacular spill of the night came when "Rusty" Roberts of Santa Barbara swerved into the wall on the backstretch and his motor careened into the hands of Herman Klein of Santa Monica. It was a merry tangle out of which Roberts arose to finish the dash event third.

How to Get Trojan Tickets Explained

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 19.—Applications for season tickets for University of Southern California home games are now being received. It was announced today by General Manager Arnold Eddy. Public season ticket applications in the preferred classifications having closed, many of the best seats are now available to those applicants who have not been on the preferred lists.

In addition to the university ticket offices, official downtown headquarters for Trojan ticket sales have been established in the B. H. Dyer company store, Seventh and Olive streets, Los Angeles.

Public season tickets, including the seven Trojan games to be played in Olympic Stadium, are $14, a reduction of $5 from last season's cost. The government tax of 10 per cent brings the total cost to $15.40.

NEW MANAGER TO PILOT S. A. CLUB IN 1933

George Lackaye resigned today as manager of the Santa Ana Stars, local night baseball club.

His relinquishment of the post will be considered tomorrow at a meeting of the board of commissioners which operates the team. This body is composed of Otto Jacobs, president, and Horace Snow and John Wilcox.

Lackaye, leader of the Stars during the strenuous 1932 National Night league pennant races, resigned for business reasons, he stated. He has established an insurance agency here and believes it to his advantage to be unaffiliated with any other organization hereafter.

"It is my desire to give the commission as much time as possible to select my successor," Lackaye said. "At the same time, I desire to thank the commission publicly, and also the fans, for their whole-hearted support during my two terms."

Lackaye was appointed to manage the Stars after Herb Salveson was released in 1930. He was in the "hot box" his first year for he was succeeding in office a pilot who had steered the Stars into a Southern California championship.

Lackaye made good. He came right back with a pennant winner, beating Anaheim, which was a 2-1 favorite, in the 1931 inter-league series, and running the Colton Southern Cal. series to the full seven games before losing the odd game. Lackaye's 1932 team won the first half of a split season but dropped a seven-game playoff to Anaheim for the league flag.

TWO OLYMPIC STARS ENROLL AS TROJANS

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 19.—(UP)—Not all of the Olympic athletes have left Southern California. Two cropped up on the University of Southern California campus today.

Simeon Turbilo, long-legged Filipino high jumper, who placed third in that event to two other Southern California athletes, Duncan McNaughton and Robert Van Oadel, has enrolled as a graduate student.

The second athlete was Likel Rimmer, Austrian 400-meter champion, who will be eligible for competition next year. Rimmer finished fifth in a semi-final 400-meter heat and ran a lap in the 1600 meter relay.

TWO DIVORCES GRANTED WIVES BY JUDGE ALLEN

Two divorces were granted to wives seeking legal separation from their husbands by Judge James L. Allen in superior court Friday and a suit was filed in superior court Saturday asking annulment of marriage.

The complaint seeking annulment of marriage was filed in superior court by John Lipe against Thelma Lipe, because, the complaint declared, the defendant had a living husband at the time of the marriage in Yuma, Ariz., on March 23, 1932.

Violet Russell was granted a divorce by Judge Allen from her husband, Ralph Russell. The complaint in the divorce action charged cruelty, specifying that at one time the plaintiff became enraged and kicked a cow the defendant was milking and then turned around and kicked her. They have been married 18 years and have three children.

An interlocutory decree of divorce was granted Vivian Heim from her husband, Julian Heim. The complaint in the case charged that Heim was cruel and stayed out all night and became angry when the plaintiff refused to go on wild parties with him. The couple was married in April, 1929, and separated in January this year.

Driver Injured By Passing Auto

Yamaela Nava, 22, resident of North Cypress street, Orange, is in the Orange county hospital today suffering from cuts and bruises received in an unusual automobile accident reported late yesterday.

The car he was driving collided with a truck at the bridge between Olive and Orange. The crash was not a serious one and Nava got out of his car to determine the damage to his car. As he did so, another machine came by and struck him, knocking him into a ditch. He said he did not get the number of either the truck or the car and did not know the drivers of either.

TRANSIENT BITTEN
Mike Burke, a hobo, was in the Orange county hospital today, reported in a serious condition as the result of being bitten by a dog.

He asked for aid from the police yesterday, showing an ugly scar which had become infected. He said he was bitten several days ago. He did not tell police where he was at the time but presumably not in Santa Ana.

BEACH RESIDENTS OFF ON VACATIONS

NEWPORT BEACH, Sept. 19.—Among those away on vacations from Newport Beach at present are George Macleod, secretary of the Newport Harbor Chamber of Commerce, who with Mrs. Macleod is spending a few days in and around Yosemite park.

Jack Twist, Boy Scout commissioner for district No. 6 of the county council, and Mrs. Twist, are spending several weeks in Oregon. A. J. Brisco, member of the Newport Beach fire department, left yesterday for Redding, where he will spend two weeks with friends. L. W. Pollette, local call fireman, and George Howard, proprietor of the Central garage of Balboa, have closed shop for the winter and left today for a tour that will take them north into Washington state, thence east as far as Yellowstone National park; expecting to be gone for the winter months.

INJURED MAN HOME
WINTERSBURG, Sept. 19.—Horse ace Musgrave, who has been a patient in a Los Angeles hospital for some time because of injuries sustained while on duty for the Standard Oil company, has returned to his home.

Police News

J. A. Wynn, of 2034 Evergreen street, reported to the city police that his automobile was stolen from a street where he parked it in Huntington Beach. It was a roadster.

A burglar who broke into the home of Catherine Whitehead of 902 Brown street, stole a watch from a dresser. The watch was worth $10 according to a report filed with the city police. Entrance into the house was made after a screen window had been cut.

Three Mexicans have been arrested by Placencia city officers and lodged in the county jail on charges of possession of liquor. Each had a bottle on his person. It was reported. They gave the names of Steve Chavez, 45, Los Angeles, Pedro Estrada, 22, Pasadena, and Pedro Orozco, 41, of La Jolla.

PRESENT PROGRAM
BREA, Sept. 19.—The program at the evangelistic meeting Nazarene church Friday included a talk by the Rev. Preston Pirtle, Pasadena, while a quartet, the Rev. Mr. Pirtle, Miss Ruth Haney, Miss Nellie P. Spaulding and Fred Schumaker, gave several numbers. A vocal solo was given by Beldon Stone.

Boy Is Injured As Horse Falls

Robert Moss, Garden Grove boy, suffered serious injuries to his right knee Saturday when the horse he was riding stumbled and fell on him.

The accident happened in front of the home of Mrs. A. F. Mills on Garden Grove road. Dr. A. C. Robbins, who was attending a patient in the Mills home at the time, rushed the boy to the Fullerton general hospital for x-rays.

Court Notes

Charged with speeding, Donald Roles has been fined $8 in the city police court. He lives in Maywood.

John Sullivan, Santa Ana man, arrested Thursday night by Santa Ana police officers has been given a suspended jail sentence in Judge J. G. Mitchell's court on a drunk charge.

NOT MODERN
LONDON.—Instead of going forward, the city of Westminster is content with living in the past, according to recent action of the city council. It contracted for the lighting of about 55 miles of the city streets by gas for the next 15 years, giving no consideration to the modern lighting medium, electricity.

'CROWD ROARS' AT WALKER STATE

"The Crowd Roars," which is now playing at Walker's State theater is James Cagney's third starring picture. His first screen successes on the screen were made in "The Public Enemy" and "Smart Money" in which he was a featured player. Then came his first starring picture, "Blonde Crazy," which was followed by "Taxi," both of which were among the leading hits of the present season.

As in "Blonde Crazy," Cagney shares honors with Joan Blondell who is fast becoming one of the best-liked actresses on the screen.

In "The Crowd Roars," Joan Blondell does not play the part of Cagney's girl-friend, but his enemy. It is through her that Cagney causes the death of his best pal and mechanic in an exciting race against his own brother, Ann Dvorak plays the role of Cagney's sweetheart and offers a performance that has won the acclaim of metropolitan reviewers. Eric Linden is cast as Cagney's brother and Guy Kibbee, his father.

Rosicrucian Order Selects Roberts

The Rosicrucians of this community will be represented in their extension activities by L. Philippe Roberts, of R. F. D. No. 3, on Buena Road near 17th street. A certificate of appointment as representative was received by Roberts from the headquarters of the Rosicrucian Order (AMORC) in San Jose, California, today.

"The representative of this organization donates his services and receives no compensation, for the Rosicrucian Order is a fraternity devoted to the dissemination of knowledge of the natural laws and the teachings of a philosophy. It is neither a commercial nor a religious organization," Roberts said.

177 Students In School At Beach

SEAL BEACH, Sept. 19.—Enrollment at the local grammar school at the end of the first week was 177, an increase of one over that of last year. Superintendent J. H. McLaughlin states that the enrollment will probably be brought up to 185 by the end of the next week.

The new school bus, recently purchased by the district, is in operation and transports 60 children to and from the school.

Pink and Blue Theme Used at Charming Luncheon

Combining a pink and blue color theme in all appointments, Mrs. Burli Wing of Orange entertained with a luncheon Saturday afternoon in the Doris Kathryn Tea Shoppe in honor of Mrs. Marion Jones of El Modena.

Flowers were used in decorating for the occasion were especially lovely, and included a large basket of African marigolds and tiny blue blossoms arranged in the entrance way. The long table where the luncheon was served at 1 o'clock was brightened with pink asters, blue delphinium and breath of heaven in a cradle basket guarded by tall stalks. More of the lovely flowers were arranged at the place where the honoree was seated.

Little pink and blue bags tied with ribbons served as nut cups, and here the clever cards which served as combination placecards and tallies.

The afternoon was spent in playing bridge, with Mrs. Elton Fuller of Santa Ana and Mrs. Oscar Schindmeyer of Orange scoring first and second high. Awards were attractively wrapped in pink and white cellophane, with pink forget-me-nots and blue and silver ribbons. Family Returns From Long Motor Trip

Mr. and Mrs. Pearl Adams and their daughter, Miss Evelyn Adams, have returned to their home, 615 North Barton street, from a pleasant automobile trip upon which they departed from Santa Ana at the beginning of September.

Colorado Springs was their first objective, that Mr. Adams might attend the sessions of the $200,000 club of the New York Life Insurance company at beautiful Broadmoor hotel, as one of the members of that active group of insurance men.

From the Colorado city, the Santa Anas continued to Texas where they visited Mr. Adams' brothers, James and Ellick Adams, near Fort Worth before leaving for a trip through New Mexico and Arizona. In the latter state they spent a short time with another brother, David Adams, at Dragoon, before departing on their homeward journey to California.

They found the country unusually beautiful and the trip without any more distressing features than the heavy condition of roads through Texas, due to torrential autumn rains which they were fortunate enough to miss.

Kellar Watson Jr. to Return From Benicia With Lovely Bride

Occurring Saturday night at 8 o'clock in St. Paul's Episcopal church, Benicia, the marriage of Miss Vi-Sian Chisholm, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Chisholm of Benicia and Kellar Watson Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Kellar Watson of Orange, was of much interest in this community, where Mr. Watson's friends are in readiness to welcome his lovely bride.

The chosen pink and blue decorative theme of the nuptials, was established by the decorations of the church in which palms and gladioluses were combined with quantities of raffles including those marking each pew. An immense wedding bell of pale pink carnations was edged with small lights to shed radiance upon the bridal party gathered at the altar.

The Rev. Isaac Dawson of Berkeley read the marriage service most impressively. Dr. Frederick Warford of San Francisco was soloist, including "At Dawning" and "Sweet Mystery of Life" on his organ. Shester Wilmet Arnold, organist, played the different bridal marches as well as incidental music to accompany the services.

For her nuptials, Miss Chisholm was gowned in broad satin, the material for which had been woven in orange blossom design, in Honolulu where it was designed and fashioned entirely by hand for her wedding. Her circular veil of rose point lace was a family heirloom and was confined to her head by a chaplet of orange blossoms. She wore a strand of tiny seed pearls and carried white orchids, gardenias and lilies of the valley.

Miss Virginia Chisholm, twin sister of the bride, and Miss Janet Watson, sister of the groom, were bridesmaids. Miss Chisholm's dress was French blue velvet with floral trimming in pale pink crushed velvet to harmonize with a small hat and suede slippers. Miss Watson reviewed the color scheme by wearing pale pink chiffon crepe with blue slippers and blue velvet and maline hat. Both carried shower bouquets of pink bouvardias and roses.

Of the bridesmaids, the Misses Charlotte Garlick, Eleanor Board, Hazel Marchant, Grace Osborn and Anna Margaret Locoy were pink frocks and blue hats, while the Misses Roberta Burris, Novelle Berling, Netha Rauhauge, Merle Hunter, Susan Hunter, and Barbara Davis, were in blue frocks and pink hats. Instead of flowers, the girls wore pink flower leis and muffs.

The little Misses Dorothy Dickinson in pink organza, and Jeanne Dickinson in blue organza, were flower girls; Master George William Dickinson, 11, was train bearer, and Master Clifford Rademacher was ring bearer.

Mr. Watson's attendants were Roy N. Edwards, best man; Philip Santmyer, Howard Plumer, John Fyle, Ray Giesner, Edward Hase, Stuart Pett, Roy Wilhide, Lavell Durrell, Godfrey Rueger Jr., Holmes Miller, Ray Todd and Spencer Nordyke, ushers.

For the nuptials and the formal reception which followed, Mrs. Chisholm, mother of the bride, was gowned in pearly velvet worn with corsage cluster of orchids, and Mrs. Kellar Watson of Orange, mother of the groom, chose supple black crepe given a French touch by rose velvet trimming. She also wore a shoulder corsage of orchids.

Following a leisurely honeymoon motor trip, Mr. and Mrs. Kellar Watson Jr. will return to the Southland to make their home in Orange.

Winslow-Klumb Nuptials Take Place Saturday In Local Church

A marriage ceremony taking place in the First Congregational church at this city at 1 o'clock on Saturday afternoon united Miss Lois Winslow, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Winslow of 502 East Pine street, and Ray Klumb of Cotton.

Church appointments were of special beauty, pink gladioluses and amaryllis lilies of the same coloring, contrasting effectively with green fernery.

While guests awaited the entrance of the bride party, Mrs. Pearl Livezey, soprano, sang two selections of appropriate mood, cadmatron of "At Dawning" and "I Love You Truly" by Carrie Jacobs Bond. Accompanying her at the organ was Alan Revill, who launched into Lohengrin's "Wedding March" following Mrs. Livezey's second solo.

The bridegroom, attended by his brother and best man, Harold Klumb, of Covina, and by the Rev. Perry F. Schrock, officiating pastor, entered first, approaching the altar down one aisle, while the bride, in white, followed almost immediately, made their approach down the other aisle.

Mrs. J. R. Smith of La Habra, sister of the bride, preceded the latter to the altar, charming in a gown of blue chiffon against which her French bouquet, bound with pink lace, was the more picturesque.

The bride, following, was simply costumed in white chiffon, trimmed with satin, her veil caught with orange blossoms. Her bouquet was of white roses and pink sweet peas, white lace falling from the bouquet in shower effect.

Serving as ushers were Bert and Alan Winslow, brothers of the bride, and the latter's cousin, James Decker, all of Santa Ana. Following a brief honeymoon in the mountains of Southern California the new Mr. and Mrs. Klumb will take up their residence in Colton.

Mrs. Klumb has been engaged as a physical education instructor in the Jefferson and Wilson schools of this city since graduating from the University of California at Berkeley. Her work in the north followed four years at the Santa Ana high school and a fifth at the local junior college.

Her husband, who was born in Alaska, resided in Olympia, Wash., before coming south to Colton, where he is now associated with the Southern California Edison company.

The newlyweds will be at home to their friends in the latter city after October 1.

Those present were Mesdames Nannie H. Reed, Bertha Helmer, Estelle Dresser, Bertha Dixon, Myrtle Waffie, May Glaze, Bess Moberly, Elizabeth Erickson and Elva Hunt.

Church Nuptials Unite Prominent County Families

Of interest throughout Orange county, where both families are well-known, was the wedding Saturday afternoon in Orange, of Miss Isabel M. Jardine, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Jardine, formerly of Santa Ana but now of 251 North Shaffer street, Orange, and Albert J. Amling, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest C. Amling, 466 East Chapman avenue.

St. John's church, where the ceremony was conducted at 2 o'clock by the Rev. C. A. Bode, was a fragrant bower of Talsman roses, amidst which bride and her attendants appeared like lovely flowers in contrasting colors.

Lovely Bride Party
Miss Jardine, approaching the rose-banked altar on the arm of her father, wore the traditional white satin fashioned with quaint puffed sleeves whose long cuffs of lace flared to her finger tips. Her sheer tulle veil, falling from a coronet of orange blossoms, was the same one worn by her mother when she was bride 22 years ago.

Completing her bridal loveliness was a great cluster of orchids and Los Angeles roses showered with lilies of the valley.

Miss Dorothy T. Jardine served her sister as honor maid, wearing a modish frock in which soft blue silk and ecru lace were combined, and a picture hat of lace and tulle in the same azure tones. Her flowers were Talsman roses wreathed with maiden-hair fern.

Miss Dorothy Amling, sister of the groom, and Miss Louise McKinley were bridesmaids. Miss Amling wearing delicate green silk and Miss McKinley appearing in tea rose pink silk. Each wore a close fitting hat to match her costume, and Miss Amling carried Claudius Pernet roses while Miss McKinley carried Brailford roses. Elmer Amling assisted his brother as best man.

Nuptial music was played by E. E. Wunderlich at the organ, and his program included also the vocal solo, "O Perfect Love."

Reception Is Held
Of the 70 or more guests at the wedding, the relatives alone continued to the Jardine home where a reception complimented the new Mr. and Mrs. Amling before their departure on a northern honeymoon trip. Mr. and Mrs. Jardine and Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Amling joined the members of the bride party in the receiving line.

Mrs. Jardine gown for her the coveted award, was "High Tops," and she was one of five young women entering the contest. A large crowd was present to hear the program which opened with invocation by the Rev. C. D. Hicks, after the contestants had entered to the strains of "Onward Christian Soldiers" with Mrs. Moody Schrock at the piano.

Mrs. U. E. Harding sang "My Task" after which Mrs. Amy Evans, W. C. T. U. president, introduced Mrs. C. D. Hicks, director of the contest department of the Union. She called the contestants by number, their names not being divulged until awards had been made. While judges were making their decision, the audience was entertained by little Miss Ruth Hawley who gave musical readings.

The medal was presented Miss Abrams by Mrs. Evans, president.

Those attending the reception following the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Amling, Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Amling, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Amling, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Jardine, Capt. G. R. 'WE ARE NOT ABLE' TOPIC IN EL MODENA

EL MODENA, Sept. 19.—"We Are Not Able" was the subject of the Rev. James C. Fleck's sermon at the morning service at Friends church Sunday. The text was found in Numbers 13:30, 31, "And Caleb stilled the people before Moses, and said, Let us go up at once, and possess it; for we are well able to overcome it. But the men that went up with him said, We be not able to go up against the people; for they are stronger than we."

He said in part: "We are not able" are words that are very commonly used among humans; in other words we just can't do it. Now Caleb is represented as the man of faith and these others are the men who haven't faith. I want to read a couple of verses of Deuteronomy. Behold, I have set the land before you; go in and possess it. And ye came near and said, We will send men before us, and they shall search out the land, and bring us word again by what way we must go up; I am reading that, because as I was studying this text, one writer says that it was by divine order that the spies were sent; but we find that it was not pleasing to God; it was because of the hearts of the people that He altered His plans. After these plans proved to be detrimental, God still makes provision for their welfare.

"The children of Israel had started from a brick kiln; they had become tired of being slaves. God had started with the people; He had performed miracles before Pharaoh. When they came to the Red Sea, the mountains were on each side, the Red Sea was in front of them, and Pharaoh and his host were behind them, so there was nothing to do but to go on; but at Kadesh-Barnea they got away from the Lord's will. At the Red Sea, God had the privilege of revealing His great power to those people. Many times we just have to stay until God has an opportunity of revealing to us His power and His will. We are able to open up so much cowardice. He has to get man in a close place; for if there is any chance, we are going to get away."

"We are not able." I wonder if we ever walked right up to the promise of God. He has revealed His promise of love and we knew it was His plan for us, but we have got faint-hearted and said, "We are not able." If we trust Him, the clouds will break and the power of God will again take possession of us. When our hearts have been lifted up, the waves and clouds are driven away, we feel vigor in our veins, and with the Spirit of Almighty God in dark times the sun breaks through and we possess the land. So many times we forget the times the sun has shined and our strength has been renewed. But Caleb and Joshua never forgot, and when the bones of those fellows who said too much, were bleaching in the wilderness, Caleb and Joshua walked into the Promised Land; they lived in houses they had not builded.

THE TINYMITES

STORY BY MAL COCHRAN—PICTURES BY KING

Fat jumpjump was having fun. My goodness, how the bird could run! The Tinies watched brave Scouty as he hung on very tight. The zoo man shouted, "Don't let go, or you will tumble off, I know. As long as you cling to the bird's long neck you'll be all right."

"Oh, don't you worry," Scouty cried. "This really is an easy ride and I feel safe as can be. Just watch us dash around."

The bird then jumped up in the air. It was so quick it seemed unfair. Poor Scouty, taken by surprise, went toppling to the ground.

Only Tiny shouted, "Are you hurt? Just look! Your clothes are full of dirt. Hop and shake yourself a bit. Then you can ride some more."

Then Scouty jumped up to his feet and said, "Although that was a treat, I think I've had enough of it. My legs are rather sore."

Wee Duncy shouted, "Now's my chance to make jumpjump bird dance. I'll show you how to ride it. On its back I'm going to stay."

But when he tried to catch the bird a little cloud of dust was stirred and then, with one big jump, the jumpjump bird dashed away.

In just a moment they all saw a sight that filled them all with awe. It looked just like an airplane and it swooped down by their feet.

"It has a bird's head," Windy cried, "and wings like plane wings at its side. There's room for me to ride in it. Here's where I get a treat!"

The zoo man promptly told the lad it was an airplane bird. "I'm glad to have you sail around in it," he shouted, with a smile.

So Windy quickly hopped aboard. Into the air the strange bird soared. "So long, you Tinies," Windy cried. "We'll be back after while."

COMMISSION TO GET PROTESTS OF BAY GROUP

SEAL BEACH, Sept. 19.—Nearly 100 residents of Seal Beach, Anaheim Landing, Surf-Side Colony and Sunset Beach met at the city hall here Saturday night for the purpose of discussing the rights of citizens in the waters of Anaheim bay and to protest the alleged actions of Frank Haegele, Sunset Beach cafe man, and owner of oyster beds in that vicinity, who, it is claimed, has impeded navigation in the lower lagoons of Anaheim bay.

The meeting, which was conducted by George Bush, Sunset Beach attorney, was called as a result of the arrest of H. F. Fuller, of Anaheim Landing and Glendale, and came under charge of Haegele when Fuller refused to leave a portion of the bay in which Haegele claims to have planted oysters. Fuller will appear in Judge Chris Pann's court at Huntington Beach September 27 at a jury trial. He will be represented by Attorney Bush.

Bush, in reading a brief to the gathering, conceded Haegele's right to plant oysters in the bay under a lease commission, but disputed Haegele's right to control the entire stretches of the lagoon. He cited decisions from the California courts on the matter and read the state law governing the planting and regulation of oyster beds, which was passed by the legislature in 1914.

It was claimed that Haegele had barred boats from the lagoons, impeded navigation with bar wire, cable and stretched a chain of row boats across the navigable waters, all of which is contrary to the state law.

A communication setting forth the complaints of the protesters was drafted by Bush and by an unanimous vote a copy was ordered sent to the state game and fish commission. The commission also stated that Anaheim bay comprised approximately 24 miles of lagoons, inhabited by many species of fish, shellfish and migratory birds, and that the protesters believed that the waters of the bay were more valuable as a pleasure ground to the many thousands of citizens who annually use the spot for recreation, than for the propagation of oysters.

By motion, it was decided to make the organization permanent. Harry Bishop, of Surf-Side Colony, was appointed chairman of a committee to draft a constitution and by-laws, and H. F. Fuller was selected treasurer. Morris Thompson, Dan Bush, Al Jenkins, of Sunset Beach, and I. C. Smith, of Seal Beach, volunteered as finance committee. A name for the group will be selected at the next meeting to be held here Saturday evening, October 1.

PASTOR TELLS GREAT VALUE OF SUNDAY SCHOOL

FULLERTON, Sept. 19.—"Thou shalt teach the commands of God diligently unto thy children, and thou shalt talk of them when thou sittest in thy house, and when thou walkest by the way, and when thou liest down, and when thou risest up."

With the foregoing exhortation, read from the Book of Deuteronomy, the Rev. E. Dow Hoffman, of the Methodist church, started his sermon yesterday morning on "The Power and Value of the Sabbath School," and drew attention of parents to the responsibility for having and keeping the child under Christian training.

The pastor outlined the parental training of children, as found in the Bible and in profane history, and declared that "If true democracy is to continue, the public school must continue and must be kept clean and pure for it is the heart through which the life blood of the nation must flow."

In part he said, "In many states the law forbids (God pity us for poor blind fools) the teaching of the Word of God in public schools, and the only place a lad can learn of God is in some Sabbath school."

"The truly balanced life must have at least three dimensions, a life moves forward, upward and backward if it is truly developing. In moving forward we have ambition and the pursuit of some noble calling. In moving outward we relate ourselves to others and have breadth of life, and in moving upward we relate ourselves to God and His great program of Kingdom Building."

"Life thus relates itself to its own ambitions, its neighbors, and its God. It is not until man has this onreach, outreach and upreach that he is fully developed and come to the full stature of man."

He said the records of Judge Ben Lindsey, of Denver, taken from a period of investigation, show that among boys, only one in 50 boys of criminal class come from homes where there has been Sunday school training. He said further that during the time the Jews were in Jerusalem before Christ's time, when the Roman governor was concerned about their power, that he said, "If you would destroy the Jews, you must first destroy their schools," and following with a warning that "if America is ever destroyed, it will be because we have allowed some enemy of the schools to undermine the teachings and morals of our people."

"The Jewish Talmud says that Jerusalem was destroyed because the religious instruction of its youth was neglected. If that is true it is time we looked to our own condition here in California, where it is a crime to read the Bible in the public schools today. If history is to be our guide, we must not fail to recognize the importance of training ourselves and our children in the Word of God."

"Provision is made whereby all ages are cared for in Sabbath school and everyone can avail himself of its privileges. There is a place for all and the one best way to keep a son from getting into trouble is to keep him in Sabbath school and the best way to keep him in Sabbath school is to be there yourself. A good motto for closing would be 'All the family in Sabbath school in the church, with every scholar a Christian, every Christian a worker, and every worker trained.'"

PILOT MAKES HIS PROMISED CALL AT H. B. IN FORCED DROP

HUNTINGTON BEACH, Sept. 19.—Dan Hoferer, coach of the Long Beach police department, World War veteran and honorary member of the California Motorcycle Officers' association, saved his plane and the lives of himself and three passengers when the plane made a forced landing at the beach here yesterday about 2:15 p. m. Hoferer, who is head of the Hoco Pump company, owns his own plane and is also his own pilot. The plane has a 165 horsepower Continental engine.

Hoferer lifted his plane at San Diego at 1 o'clock Sunday afternoon. He had for passengers, his wife, Ed Edmondson, of Long Beach, and Miss Helen Keane, of Beverly Hills. The plane was headed inland and after passing Lake Elsinore, was turned toward the coast.

Immediately after leaving Laguna the plane cracked a cylinder and began smoking. Hoferer headed for the flying field near Standard Oil camp here, but before arriving his plane was in such trouble that he decided to search for a landing spot on the beach. He found a place half mile east of Huntington Beach not occupied by the Sunday beach crowd. He banked his plane just east of the municipal pier, banking with the wind and set the plane down nicely on the beach, making a perfect landing.

Chief of Police Keller, who had watched the plane, hurried to the scene of the landing. He had recognized Hoferer's plane. Chief Keller and Hoferer were buddies in the World War. Two days previously Hoferer had met Keller at Huntington Beach and visit the chief for a few days. When the two men met yesterday at the plane sat like a big bird on the beach, Hoferer said: "Here I am, Verne, come to pay you that visit."

Hoferer said he was not a fault-finder, but he needed to distinguish between finding fault for its own sake and disinterested protest against what is morally wrong, which is quite another thing. There are men who are always harping on this subject and there is another kind who find things wrong to humanity at large.

"I would call attention to a group of men who went to Washington demanding assistance, forgetting all the nation needed help also. We have another group always complaining about his own life, who thinks he is wrong. We must think clearly and remember a constructive attitude is best. But before we can begin to build, and lack of this is the source of much of our failure. An un-Christian world has made Christian living almost impossible. Then anti-Christian things must go. We have to destroy evil un-Christianity. Graft and corruption flourishes everywhere, because we do not protest. Protesting the wrong is fundamental to asking. Doing often causes undoing."

The principal cause of crime is indifference to wrong. We had better protest much broader. Indifference to wrong may be just as much the act of a coward as indifference to right. We had better protest much louder. Why did Lloyd George blame the church for the late war? Was it because we were the cause of it? No. But because we failed to protest it as we should have done, with all our power. If another war comes we will be to blame. Whenever we have found an evil we were told to stick to our religion and the gospel we knew. Thank God that day is done. 'How can a boat stay out of water,' said Mary Bolser, Sept. 19.—A chicken dinner served Friday evening at Bolser clubhouse, followed by an evening of cards opened the fall club season here. Forty were present for the dinner while eight tables of bridge and "500" entertained.

First prizes were given in both games, George Annin and Mrs. M. C. Hazard being the winners in "500" and Joe L. Edwards and Mrs. Opal Floyd in bridge.

MUST PROTEST TO FIGHT EVIL, SAYS PASTOR

BREA, Nov. 16.—"Is the Protestant Church Needed?" was the topic selected by the Rev. Donald F. Gaylord, pastor of the Brea Congregational church Sunday morning. The text is found in Jeremiah 11:7, "For I earnestly protested unto your fathers on the day I brought them up out of the land of Egypt, even unto this day rising early and protesting, saying, 'Obey my voice.'"

He said in part: "We are told to be constructive, not fault-finders, but we need to distinguish between finding fault for its own sake and disinterested protest against what is morally wrong, which is quite another thing. There are men who are always harping on this subject and there is another kind who find things wrong to humanity at large."

Church Service Unites Miss Thorndike and Albert Tisnerat

Fall flowers, green palms and tall canabara graced the altar of the First Methodist Episcopal church of this city Sunday afternoon when Albert Tisnerat of Corona, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. Tisnerat of that city, took as his bride, Miss Elpha Thorndike, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred H. Thorndike of 1523 North Broadway. The ceremony took place at 4 o'clock, with Dr. George Warner, pastor of the church, reading the rites.

A brief musicale preceded the service, Harry Garstang offering piano selections and Miss Sally Vogelsang of Los Angeles singing "Oh Promise Me" (Carrie Jacobs Bond) and "We'll Be Sweethearts Forever."

Miss Thorndike, entering upon the arm of her father, A. H. Thorndike, closed a bridal procession of two, her bridesmaids being her sister, Miss Julia Thorndike, and Miss Eleanor Randall. The former's costume was of chartreuse chiffon, with velvet hat in matching tone, while orchid sweet peas comprised her bouquet. Miss Randall wore ivory wool crepe with hat to match, and carried a bouquet of yellow sweet peas.

Gowned in white satin, with veil of white, and trailing behind her the bride's roses and lilies of the valley, the bride made a lovely picture. Cut on princess lines, the folds of her dress fell into a briar train, while a note of blue was introduced into her costume in the delphinium, which with lilies of the valley, was tied to streamers falling from her bouquet.

Warren Du Bois served in the capacity of best man, while ushers included Winston Hoyle and Lawrence Walbridge of this city and Robert Vogelsang of Los Angeles.

Church decoration had been arranged by Miss Virginia Bailey and the Misses Helen and Loretta Spangler.

Bidden to the Thorndike home on North Broadway at the ceremony's close, guests were there greeted by Mrs. Thorndike, Mrs. Otis Morrison and Mrs. J. Edmund Snow, of Santa Ana, and by Clyde Elliott of Orange. Here a large wedding cake, placed before the bride, was cut and served by Mrs. Morrison. Others assisting in serving were the Misses Alice Majors, Gorgia Turner, Virginia Bailey, Helen and Loretta Spangler, and Mrs. E. Crumrine of Orange, and Mrs. J. Edmund Snow, who supervised this hospitality.

Departing soon afterwards on a motor train, the new Mr. and Mrs. Tisnerat revealed that they would return after a fortnight to Corona, to establish their home. For traveling Mrs. Tisnerat wore a suit of navy blue trimmed in squirrel hair.

The bride, who took her preparatory work at the Santa Ana high school, from which she received her diploma, has divided her scholastic work during the past three years, between the University of California at Berkeley, and the U. C. L. A. campus at Westwood, majoring in history.

A graduate of the Long Beach high school, Mr. Tisnerat has been engaged, since leaving that institution, in Corona, where he and his brother enjoy joint ownership of a business.
